

Year Group:	2	Subject:	History
Term:	Spring	Topic:	Moon Landing

Links to Previous Learning
What did Neil Armstrong say when he stepped on the Moon for the first time?
List the main events in the Moon landing.
Which country was the first to send a man into space?
How have we benefited from space exploration?

What you should know:
To use artefacts, pictures, stories, online sources and databases to find out about the past.
Describe significant people from the past.
Place events and artefacts in order on a time line.
Show an understanding of concepts such as: nation and a nation's history, civilisation, monarchy, parliament, democracy, and war and peace.

Key Fact: Neil Armstrong was the first man on the moon in 1969.

Why is space travel important?

Key Vocabulary
commander	person in charge of a military operation
breakthrough	successful for the first time
rivals	those in competition with one another orbit	the path an object takes.

At home: Are there any family members that were alive in 1969? What do they remember about the events? Explore the NASA website to find out more about space exploration: <https://spaceplace.nasa.gov/>

